

In-house residentials for students

PARTICIPATE...The first of the in-house residential tutorials were held last week at Uni Hub Spencer Gulf. The tutorials were run by CQ University for social work students. Uni Hub Spencer Gulf is in the process of coordinating a number of other tutorials for its students in a range of courses.

Pictured were, from left, students Kylie Cole and Melissa Boruch, CQU tutor and northern regions manager for Centacare Catholic Country SA Emily Alchin, and students Emma Davis and Vivian Talent. Emma travelled from Orange in New South Wales to attend the tutorial session.

News around the Uni Hub

Did you know...?

Did you know that Uni Hub Spencer Gulf facilities are available to all students studying at a tertiary level?

Students not studying through Uni Hub Spencer Gulf's tertiary partners can still utilise the facilities.

For more information, contact the campus coordinator on 1800 549 779.

We have space for your function

Conference room facilities are available for hire at the Port Pirie campus of Uni Hub Spencer Gulf.

The room facilities include seating (for about 60 people - lecture style), meeting desks and projector screen.

Catering can be arranged through local businesses.

For more detail and availability, contact the campus coordinator on 1800 549 779.

Youth awards

2019 marks the second round of the Governor's Aboriginal Youth Awards, which recognise young Aboriginal South Australians who are showing potential and determination to achieve success, or who are excelling in their chosen field in one of three areas: Sport, Arts and Higher Education.

For more information, including criteria, guidelines and downloadable nomination forms, visit dpc.sa.gov.au/governors-aboriginal-youth-awards.

Alternatively, call Aboriginal Affairs and Reconciliation on 08 8429 3200 or email AboriginalYouthAwards@sa.gov.au.

Out and about in the community

Uni Hub Spencer Gulf have been out and about in the local community to spread the word about 'taking your next big step in your own backyard'.

The team were at the Laura Folk Fair to speak to visitors about how the hub could support their tertiary education aspirations.

The Uni Hub also supported Port Pirie's first console and PC gaming event, Game On, which was held at the Northern Festival Centre last month.

Pictured were, from left, communications officer Renae Murdoch and Port Pirie campus coordinator Kim Gregory at the Laura Folk Fair.

