

UNI HUB

FROM TEAM MEMBER TO TEAM LEADER

Program Overview

Objectives

- Explore strategies to cope creatively with change in yourself and others.
- Learn the six leadership styles most useful for team leadership.
- Practice how to be flexible and use an appropriate leadership style.
- Identify ways to communicate effectively as a team leader.
- Discover your dominant conflict management mode at work.
- Reflect on and understand current team management focus.

Topics

- Managing your leadership transition.
- Reframing the discomfort of role change and transition.
- Raising self and team leadership awareness.
- Discovering leadership opportunities and challenges.
- Understanding leadership styles and when to use them.
- Learning effective communication skills for team leaders.
- Managing conflicts and creating team cohesion.
- Monitoring team needs and learning to boost performance.

Program Delivery Details

Program delivery

Venue: Uni Hub Conference Room 97 Ellen Street, Port Pirie, SA 5540

Date: Thursday 30th September

Time: 9.00am – 4.30pm

Format: Face-to-face

Catering: Morning tea, lunch and afternoon tea provided.

How will I benefit?

You will gain:

- awareness of transferrable skills and attitudes when moving from a team member to a team leader role
- knowledge of the six leadership styles to help become a flexible and effective leader and respond to team needs
- practice communication tools and conflict management to spot issues early on and confidently manage them.

Program Presenter

Sonali D'silva

MBA HR, BSc, MBTI Certified

Sonali is an astute facilitator and brings her two-decades of leadership and management development experience to her training delivery.

Prior to her current business she worked for 15 years in managerial and leadership positions in learning development with global companies in the IT and Healthcare industries.

Sonali has worked within Asia, Europe and the US and has facilitated 500+ in-person workshops across cultures and leadership levels. Her passion is developing inclusive leaders - leveraging diversity and cultivating inclusive teams.

Sonali is a published author of a book on leadership and actively writes and creates content on leading teams, and Inclusion and Diversity. She currently serves as a Board Director for Xlent Disability Services, an NDIS provider in SA.